PTL Needs Your Help!

Here are two signs up for the upcoming need for volunteers and help. On Wednesday, April 24 we celebrate mothers with Muffins for Moms! We need help to serve them. Here's a sign up to help make it a special morning for them in celebration of all they do!

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70A094CABA629A4F94-48503133-muffins>

After this is another wonderful opportunity with our teacher appreciation week. On Wednesday, May 8, we celebrate our teacher by hosting a luncheon for them. To make this possible we cover their lunch and recess duties. This is a big effort, but a lot of fun and pours into our teachers. Here's a sign up if you're able to help celebrate our teachers and love on them .

There are multiple opportunities on the horizon to get volunteer hours. As the spring musical approaches there will be opportunities to help build the stage or deconstruct the stage. Perhaps you prefer making costumes and sets. Your talents would be used well.

In order to help volunteer with students Trinity needs to have a background check and training certificate on file. You can complete those free of charge at Trinity's website: Volunteer and Chaperone Training

VOLUNTEER HOURS

Annual Lock-In (Grades 5-8)

In about a month's time a team from Concordia Mequon will be arriving at Redeemer Lutheran to host an all-night extravaganza. This is commonly known as the Lock-In! No sleeping allowed at this event. Spend all night and morning engaging in scripture and games. Who knows, maybe Mr. Sawyer will stay up all night too! Join the fun on Friday, April 19 starting at 7:00 p.m. It is $10 per participant. Dinner, snacks, drinks, and slushies are provided to keep them going all through the night!

Parents, if this sounds really fun and you want to be a part of it, we have need of volunteers to take shifts throughout the night to assist Mr. Sawyer (keep him awake).

School Association Events

The NEWLHS Drama Department presents "HELGA" on April 26 & 27. Click here to reserve your tickets today!

Helga is mourning. And pondering. And mourning some more. And pondering some more. Her mother is dead from natural causes – or so she thinks, until her dead mother returns as a ghost and tells her the truth: It was not of natural causes. It was murder. Now her mother needs Helga to avenge her death. But avenging her would force Helga to take action instead of pondering... all the time. Perhaps she should just go mad. An uproariously dark comedy that follows Shakespeare's Hamlet while taking some unforeseen and bizarre twists. Good news... everyone still dies. It is a comedic tragedy, after all. Along the journey, there are betrayals, sword fights, scenes of madness and laughter, ghosts galore, a love story of sorts, a demise non-demise, lots and lots of pondering questions without answers, and a destroyed pillow. Oh, and all the genders have been reversed.
